

Resources Audit

Exploring nature	What do you have currently?	What would you like to supplement it with?
Looking up close
Collecting and collections
Life-cycles
Change over time
Noticing differences
Stories featuring nature
Reference material – commercially produced and setting-made

Resources Audit

Exploring places	What do you have currently?	What would you like to supplement it with?
Small world representations in a range of places across your provision – reflecting actual places and features
Small world representations – imaginary
Photographs to discuss familiar places as well as less familiar
Materials to make places or habitats
Stories relating to place
Non-fiction texts relating to place
Role-play opportunities to explore places

Resources Audit

Developing a sense of community	What do you have currently?	What would you like to supplement it with?
Representations of a range of people across your provision
Resources which are familiar to children from their home life across your provision
Stories which reflect a range of communities
Non-fiction books which reflect a range of communities
Photographs of the children and important people in their lives
Photographs which reflect a range of communities and special places to them

Resources Audit

Resources which reflect experiences children have had
How things work	What do you have currently?	What would you like to supplement it with?
Objects to explore first hand, to include being able to take them apart
Photographs showing process of how things work
Occupations	What do you have currently?	What would you like to supplement it with?
Have representations of a variety of occupations without re-enforcing stereotypes.
Role-play materials to reflect aspects of a variety of occupations
Stories which reflect a range of occupations
Non-fiction material which reflect a range of occupations		